Chapter 1 by Matthew Wright

I crept through the Dark Elves' forest, which was full of giant trees with mottled brown bark and green leaves. Slipping through a clump of shorter trees, I froze. Standing there, in the light filtering through the leaves, was a stag, seven hands tall, with white fur and velvet horns.

Silently, I released my bow from my back and slipped an arrow onto the string. ZIP! The arrow flew straight and true... until a willowy, raven-haired elf leaped down from the trees above and intercepted it. Dumbfounded, I stared at her.

She was a tall, thin but curvy, beautiful elf that was extremely fast.
